

Pastoral Council Agenda

August

Committee Reports:

Building and Maintenance:

- B & M Lawncare gave an estimated value of between $750 and $1250 for the Dixie Chopper riding mower and between $500 and $700 for the Toro riding mower. B & M has expressed interest in buying the Dixie Chopper.
- The Knights of Columbus were informed of the Parish Council decision of not installing the 10' by 20' pro-life sign on church property. They accepted the decision.
- The Knights of Columbus were informed of the Parish Council decision to place the KofC sign in the area of the doors to the parish hall. They have requested that the Parish Council reconsider the decision. They would like to have the sign placed near the top of the steps leading to the Activity Building. This will keep it away from the church, but will still be visible on Mulberry Ave.
- Joe Custer has looked at the damage in the choir loft and will give us an estimate for the plaster work.
